LIBRARY RULES.

CATALOG.

- 30 J 22
1. This catalog is charged to you. A record of your name and number, together with the number of this catalog, is kept in the Library. You are held responsible to preserve it the same as a Library book.
  2. On the day before going out on parole or by discharge this catalog will be taken from your cell and checked in together with all Library property.
  3. If you are moved from one cell to another, this catalog must be moved also. If for any reason it becomes misplaced, report the fact to the Cell House Officer at once. It is not the property of the cell, but it is yours as long as you are in the Institution and entitled to draw books.
  4. See that your cell number and range number are correct on your card each time before sending it in for a book.
  5. Fill both sides of your card with numbers of books you desire to draw. Write all the number as A 13 c or 973.8 A 395; if there is more than one volume, place the number of the volume you wish after the book number, as 973 M 167 V2.
  6. If the Librarian is unable to find any book on the shelves that is marked on your card, a book will be issued to you according to your school classification.
  7. If your card is sent in not filled out with book numbers, the Librarian will take it for granted that you do not wish any book and your card will be held.
  8. Do not erase cancelled book numbers from your card. This is done to prevent getting the same book twice.
  9. Do not erase any letters that have been placed at the top of your card by the Librarian. They are there for your benefit.
  10. Do not write a book number on your card in more than one place.
  11. New cards will be issued whenever needed.

CARE OF BOOKS.

12. Books, Magazines, Catalogs, etc., must not be marked, written in, pictures drawn in, pictures traced, torn, defaced or injured in any way, destroyed, loaned or passed out of your cell.
13. All books and magazines are examined carefully after return that none may be issued in a mutilated condition. You will be held responsible for books drawn by you to preserve and return the same in good condition.
14. Any one found guilty of mutilating, destroying, tracing pictures, loaning or passing out of the cell any book, catalog, magazine, Bible, Prayer Book, drill book, or of violating any rule or regulation of the Library shall be temporarily denied the use of the Library and promptly reported to the Assistant Superintendent.
15. Library books must not be kept longer than two weeks; a magazine two weeks; a school text four weeks; without being returned to the Library. They may be renewed upon request. To keep any book longer than allowed will subject you to a report for delinquency.

16. On the morning of exchange days, leave your library book, magazine, etc., you wish to exchange on the bed near the door. Never place or leave a book between the bars or in the door.

MISCELLANEOUS.

17. Dictionaries, word books, and spelling books, may be drawn on a special card for four weeks. Upon request this privilege will be renewed for four weeks longer. These books will be issued in addition to a book and a magazine.

18. German, English, Spanish, Polish, French, Latin, and Italian grammars, or dictionaries, will be issued on special cards for four weeks with privilege of renewal for four weeks longer. Any one of these books will be issued in addition to a book and a magazine.

19. When you send your book to the Library for exchange, be sure that your card is in the book pocket. Lost Library cards will be replaced only upon the order of the General Superintendent or the Assistant Superintendent.

20. Any book, magazine, etc., found in your cell not issued to you must be turned in to the Cell House Officer at once. You will be held responsible if you leave it in your cell.

21. All calls for books that are no longer in the Library will be crossed out on your card by the Librarian.

MAGAZINE RULES.

22. Magazines can be drawn only on the magazine card.

23. You are entitled to one magazine at a time, in addition to your Library book.

24. A magazine can be kept two weeks. To keep it longer subjects you to a report for delinquency.

25. Instructions for calling for magazines will be found at the top of your card. Obey these instructions to the letter. Do not mutilate your card with unnecessary marks. Do not erase any marks placed on your card by the Librarian. This is for your benefit.

SCHOOL TEXTS.

26. The following books are considered School Texts. You are entitled to draw one school text at a time not mentioned in Rule 28, on either book or magazine card.

27. A school text can be kept four weeks, and upon request will be renewed for four weeks longer.

28. Hill's Manual, Our Islands and Their People, Picturesque Egypt, and all text books on Bookkeeping, Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Chemistry, Botany, Zoology, Surveying, Law, Geology, Typewriting, Shorthand, Physics, Psychology, etc., are issued only on special cards and can be obtained only through special request to the Library. This privilege will deny you the use of one of your regular cards during the time for which this special card is issued.
